The worthy celebration of the sacred liturgy places numerous demands upon many people during Holy Week. Particular thanks must go to our deacon, Simon, to our servers & sacristans, organist & singers, readers & children's liturgy leaders, cleaners & flower arrangers, greeters & collectors, launderers & income recorders, and to all who have worked to prepare and enhance our liturgical celebrations.

Thank you to all who have participated in the holy season of Lent and to all who have come together over these past few days to celebrate the great events that have brought us to Easter. We wish you and your loved ones the peace & joy of the Risen Lord.
