From the beginning of September Mass on Mondays and Thursdays will be at 9.00am. The familiar 10.00am time for Tuesdays and Fridays will remain unchanged. Hopefully, having dropped their child or children off at school, this might enable some parents to find a moment in church for some peace and prayer and also give them an opportunity to more easily stay for Mass should they wish.

There will be a meeting for anyone who would be interested in becoming a reader on Saturday, 21 September, at 10.00am in the church. Older children and younger adults – especially those recently Confirmed - are particularly encouraged to consider deepening their participation at Mass by serving our communal worship in this way.

If you would be interested in getting involved in the Liturgy of the Word for children then please speak with Fr. M. Please note that the care and Safeguarding of our children means that there are certain steps that must be followed and we need to allow time for those to take place. Thank you.

Eucharistic adoration

Saturday, 14 September, will see the 24th National Eucharistic Congress, Adoremus, take place at Oscott College, near Birmingham. To mark the event we will have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on that same morning from 9.30 - 10.30am. This will enable us to unite with those at Oscott and with the universal Church as we come before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament in prayerful preparation for the Jubilee Year of 2025.

In order to foster further and regular Eucharistic devotion we will, subsequently, have Exposition & Benediction on the first Saturday morning of the month, from 9.30 - 10.30am. This will commence on Saturday, 5 October.
