

General intercessions

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Celebrant: Our Lord commands us not to be distressed or fearful, with confidence then we bring our needs to him:

Reader:

That our Pope and bishops, as successors of the apostles, may clearly teach and lovingly guide the Church:

Lord, heard us ...

For a spirit of reconciliation; that with God's help we may let go of hurts and renew damaged relationships within our families, workplaces and communities:

Lord, hear us ...

That Christ's farewell gift of peace may be preserved through a renewed respect and protection for every human life, born or unborn:

Lord, hear us ...

For all students who are once again undertaking exams, that they may use the knowledge and skill they have to the best of their abilities:

Lord, hear us ...

That Christ's victory over death may bring hope and a new beginning to all who suffer the consequences of war and violence, especially in Ukraine:

Lord, hear us ...

That all who are burdened by sickness, suffering, fear or anxiety, may know the peace of the Spirit that can free them to live life as fully as possible:

Lord, hear us ...

That all who have died may come to the eternal light and life of The Lord:

Lord, hear us ...

Celebrant:

Let us seek the prayers of Our Lady of Pochaev: Hail Mary...

Father, you have made your dwelling with us. Hear our prayers, fulfil our needs and grant us your salvation. Through Christ our Lord.
