

General intercessions

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

Celebrant: The Lord is with us and, as salvation has come to our house, so we now pray.

Reader:

That we may faithfully carry out our mission to gather people to God by proclaiming and living the Gospel of the Lord:

Lord, hear us

That following the example of their founder, the Spiritans may be inspiring witnesses of holy life and fruitfully promote God's kingdom:

Lord, hear us ...

That like Zaccheus, our knowledge of Jesus may lead us to be generous to the poor, as well as to all who are weak or neglected,

Lord, hear us ...

That we may embrace the Culture of Life and champion the weak, the neglected and the unborn:

Lord, hear us ...

That the Lord may heal the sick and bring comfort and peace to the dying,

Lord, hear us ...

That all the departed may be brought into the joy of God's presence:

Lord, hear us ...

Celebrant:

Let us seek the prayers of Our Lady of the Rosary as we say: Hail Mary...

Father, as you hear our prayers, may we glorify your name by our faithful service. Through Christ our Lord.
