Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time – Remembrance (C)

Celebrant: The day of the Lord is coming and trusting in him we pray with confidence.

Reader:

For a greater respect for each person: that God will soften the hearts of all who rely upon violence and heal all who have suffered harm, abuse or neglect:

Lord, hear us ...

For those displaced by war or persecution that they may be given courage and find a kindly welcome:

Lord, hear us ...

That the leaders of our world may work to secure peace and justice for people of every nation:

Lord, hear us ...

That all those who serve in our Armed Forces might uphold our peace and security with integrity and honour:

Lord, hear us ...

That the sick and the suffering, especially those who are victims of armed violence, may be comforted and healed:

Lord, hear us ...

That all who have died, especially during war in service of their country, may know eternal peace:

Lord, hear us ...

Celebrant:

Let us seek the prayers of Our Lady Queen of Peace as we say: Hail Mary...

Lord, continue to protect us with your grace. Provide for our needs, that we may always trust you and serve you faithfully. Through Christ our Lord.
