

General intercessions

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Celebrant: We know that God is near to all who call upon him and so we present our prayers and needs.

Reader

That we may be signs of God's living presence as we try to live out the demands of the Gospel:

Lord, hear us ...

For our national and local governments; that they may govern with a spirit of humility and ensure the rights of all:

Lord, hear us ...

That we may look upon the poor, the vulnerable, the stranger and the unborn with the unconditional love and respect portrayed by the Gospel:

Lord, hear us ...

That our parish communities may imitate the generosity called for in today's Gospel and be faithful and unstinting stewards:

Lord, hear us ...

That all who are sick or suffering may know they are held close to the heart of our God,

Lord, hear us ...

That those who have died may come into the abiding presence of the living Lord:

Lord, hear us ...

Celebrant:

Let us seek the prayers of Our Lady, Queen of Angels: Hail Mary...

God, listen to the prayers of your people and make us generous stewards of the abundant gifts you have given us. Through Christ our Lord.
