Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Celebrant: Trusting that God knows our desires and needs, we bring to Him the needs of the world and ourselves.

Reader

For all Christians that we may seek after integrity and be true to our call to service:

Lord, hear us ...

That we may promote a careful stewardship of creation that also upholds the right of every person to life:

Lord, hear us ...

For all who work, that they may see their labour as a way of sharing in the life of God, the Creator of all things:

Lord, hear us

For our schools, that as they begin the new academic year they may be blessed in their efforts to help educate and form our future,

Lord, hear us ...

For all those who suffer in body, mind or spirit that they may be cared for with gentleness and patience:

Lord, hear us...

For all who have died, that they may enter into the Kingdom of Heaven:

Lord, hear us ...

Celebrant:

Let us seek the prayers of the Mother of the Lord: Hail Mary...

Giver of all life, we ask you to sustain us and the life of the world. Make us as generous as you are in answering those who turn to you. Through Christ our Lord.
