

General intercessions
Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Celebrant: Called to the Kingdom of God, we are called to intercede for all. Therefore, let us now pray.

Reader:

For the Church, that as we advance the Kingdom of God, we may be always secure from the deceitful snares of the devil:

Lord, hear us ...

We pray for all missionaries who courageously spread the love of Christ and bring hope to those in need. May God grant them grace and strength, and may we actively support them with our prayers and generous contributions, enabling them to continue their vital work around the world.

Lord, hear us ...

That we may strive to protect the poor who are in danger of neglect, the weak who are in danger of exploitation, and the unborn who are in danger of abortion:

Lord, hear us ...

That our political parties will seek to campaign with a regard to the truth and the best interests of those that they seek to serve:

Lord, hear us ...

That all who are ill, especially those in our parish and in our families, may be strengthened by God's grace:

Lord, hear us ...

That all who have died may experience the forgiveness of their sins and the joy of seeing God:

Lord, hear us ...

Celebrant:

We seek the help of Mary, the new Eve, as we say: Hail Mary...

Lord, you promised the triumph of good over evil and of your Kingdom over that of Satan. Show us that victory as you answer the prayers we have placed before you. Through Christ our Lord.
