Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Remembrance Sunday

Celebrant:

Acknowledging that God is the giver of all life, we place our needs before his throne.

Reader:

We remember all who have given their lives in time of war, may the memory of their sacrifice and of the grief of their friends and families prompt us all to pursue peace,

Lord, hear us...

We pray for peoples displaced by war or violence, especially in Ukraine and the Middle East, that they may be given courage and find a generous welcome,

Lord, hear us...

We pray for all who are currently serving in our Armed Forces that they may defend justice and peace with honour and distinction,

Lord, hear us...

We pray for the United Nations, that it may become an effective instrument of peace in the world,

Lord, hear us...

We pray for all who are sick and suffering, that they may be restored to health and wholeness according to the will of God:

Lord, hear us...

We pray that all who have died, especially by violence and war, may be united with the glorified saints in heaven:

Lord, hear us...

Celebrant:

Let us seek the help of Our Lady of Sorrows: Hail, Mary...

God our Creator, you bless us with abundant life. Hear the prayers of your grateful servants and answer us in the name of Jesus, who is Lord forever and ever.
