

General intercessions

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Celebrant: Let us offer our prayers for all those in need of the Lord's abiding presence.

Reader

That we may all seek to live in a spirit of generosity and self-sacrifice:

Lord, hear us ...

That the difficult pursuit of justice may bring peace to all peoples suffering from the effects of war, and that acts of violence and bloodshed may cease:

Lord, hear us ...

That our society may understand the pain of those who have suffered injustice and have the courage to work for peace and reconciliation:

Lord, hear us ...

That we, the People of Life, may always proclaim and defend human life as a gift from God, who destroys death forever in Christ:

Lord, hear us ...

That those in our community who are sick, suffering or lonely, may experience God's love and compassion:

Lord, hear us ...

That all who have died may they enjoy eternal life and joy with the Lord:

Lord, hear us ...

Celebrant:

Let us seek the prayers of Our Lady of the Rosary: Hail Mary...

Father of life, hear the prayers of your people voiced in the name of your Son, who is Lord forever and ever.
